

Media Information For Immediate Release

Object images

Exhibition knife with 104 blades. Greenhough, late 1800s. Courtesy Toolbank Collection

Display knife in 14 carat gold, stainless steel and mother of pearl designed and made by Stan Shaw, 1987. Courtesy Sheffield Assay Office

Multi-blade knife with horn scales. Stan Shaw. Courtesy Hawley Tool Collection

Multi-blade knife based on a Joseph Rodgers & Sons pattern. Steven Cocker, 2022. Courtesy Steven Cocker

Media Information
For Immediate Release

Object images

Folding knife with 9ct gold scales. William Needham, 1904. Courtesy the Needham family

Folding knife with tortoiseshell scales and gold pique decoration. Taylors Eye Witness, 1800s, Courtesy Hawley Tool Collection

Coffee Pot made by Matthew Fenton, Richard Creswick and William Watson marked in 1773. Copyright Steve Ellis & Sheffield Assay Office

Tea kitchen caddy, sterling silver, John Rowbotham and Co, 1774. Courtesy Sheffield Assay Office

Media Information
For Immediate Release

Object images

Duckling, stainless steel © Jason Heppenstall

Heron, stainless steel © Jason Heppenstall

Dragonfly and Kingfisher, stainless steel ©
Jason Heppenstall

For jpegs, please contact:

Amy Farry, Communications Officer,
Sheffield Museums
07595 611540 /
amy.farry@sheffieldmuseums.org.uk

Chris Harvey, Head of Communications,
Sheffield Museums
07966 343947 /
chris.harvey@sheffieldmuseums.org.uk